CCA-sponsored Nearshore Reefs

UT-Brownsville researchers report culverts deployed in 2011 now harbor large populations of red snapper.

By Richard Kline Ph.D

At the South Padre Island Reef: Only an hour after leaving the docks of Port Mansfield, there are three keeper snapper in the box and she has been broken off twice. Now, her reel is screaming again and her arm is aching...is she stuck on the bottom? No, she is not! She looks into the water. It is golden-red from all the snapper rising from the depths to investigate the squid dropped over-board. The artificial reef is like a box of chocolates, you never know what you’re gonna get.

The federal government will again close the red snapper season after only a few weeks. But, thanks to CCA and the TPWD Artificial Reef Program, Texas anglers can still enjoy fishing and catching the abundant red snapper near-shore.

Hard structure is reef fish habitat; however, the majority of the western Gulf of Mexico is composed of sediment. While our oil platforms rapidly disappear, artificial reefs have become the predominant offshore hard structure in the area. Numerous reefs have been placed by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department over the years, although there is still an ongoing debate regarding their function. Are they primarily fish habitat or do they simply serve as fish aggregation areas?

Saltwater recreational fishing has a two billion dollar impact in Texas alone, and the benefit of additional hard structure is clear: MORE FISH. However, we still need to optimize our artificial reef configurations for maximum benefits to fishermen and the reef fish populations. The deployment costs, construction costs and lifespan of the structures need to be carefully considered.

Eight short miles off the jetties of Port Mansfield lies the South Padre Island reef (PS-1047). It is a reefing block covering 160 acres, composed of a tugboat and 5000 concrete culverts that were placed in 2008 and 2011.

Soon after this 2011 deployment, I applied for a grant from CCA and the TPWD Artificial Reef program to study the effects of the deployment of this reef on the resulting fish populations and recruitment (arrival of young fish to the site). We recognized early on that the way the culverts were deployed might show differences in fish populations. These differences might shed light on the optimal configuration for future installations of artificial reefs.

The artificial reef monitoring program at UT-Brownsville (soon to be UT-RGV) has been going strong since 2007. At that time Drs. David Hicks and Carlos Cintra were awarded their first grant from the TPWD Artificial Reef Program to document the reeling of the Texas Clipper. I have been collaborating with them ever since. For the current Culvert reef project, I recruited two exceptional graduate students to work with me on this reef system for their thesis projects.

Catheline Froehlich came from the University of Massachusetts Amherst and Rachel Arney from the University of Arizona. The focus of Catheline’s project is how the density of concrete culverts (loose or dense) that make up the reef affects sub-adult and adult reef fish populations with an emphasis on red snapper.

Rachel is investigating how the arrangement of concrete culverts affect the recruitment of post-settlement fish using specially designed settlement structures.

These two studies ask the following questions: 1) Does the configuration in which the concrete culverts are dropped really matter? 2) Do the culverts provide adequate habitat for reef fish species? 3) Does culvert reef configuration affect juvenile fish recruitment?

The average depth at the South Padre Island reef is 68 feet. The entire region has a persistent layer of suspended particles (called the nepheloid layer) that moves around and can greatly affect visibility in the area. On good days, divers can see fifty feet away; on typical days, visibility is only 10-15 feet; and on very bad days, you cannot see your hand in front of your face. On these bad days, which occur often in winter, it is impossible to adequately monitor the reefs using visual surveys. To overcome this obstacle, we are using side-scan sonar to describe the culvert reef. This technology has allowed us to visualize the magnitude of the culvert field. It has also enabled us to identify some very, very large fish.

So, what have we learned so far? Although this study is still ongoing, there are some trends that we can already see.

Catheline’s study:
Her fish census data shows that the concrete culverts have a lot of red snapper over them. In other words, the 5,000 culverts that were deployed, thanks to funding from TPWD and CCA, are serving their purpose. Even though this area is heavily fished, there are numerous red snapper on the artificial reef. On the other hand, we have never observed any adult red snapper over bare areas. No statistical differences are seen in the number or the size of red snapper, between our categories of culvert patches—loose and dense. However, the highest numbers that we have ever observed were on dense configurations of culverts, 106 in a single observation!

Grey snapper and grey triggerfish are also abundant on the two patch categories; however, they are seen in slightly higher numbers on the dense reefs.

The results of this study so far suggest that placing concrete structures in loose configuration over a wider area may be adequate and more cost effective for future reef deployments, especially if habitat for red snapper is the goal. We have observed red snapper to be the dominant fish on the reef followed by grey snapper (mangrove), Atlantic spadefish, almaco jacks, and sheepshead. Some other important but more rare fish we find are groupers such as gag, scamp, Warsaw, and once, even a black drum. Divers will delight in the numerous colorful reef fish that we find at the artificial reef including porkfish, spotfin butterflies, rock hinds, orange filefishes, blue angelfish, cocoa damsels, belted sandfish, and cubbyu.

Rachel’s study:
Her project with the juvenile fish uses standardized monitoring units for recruitment of fish (SMURFs). Our first idea for using these units was simply to discern the types of fish that were arriving at the reef. But since there were differences in the culvert densities, we decided to compare the effects of the reef structure on the appearance of young fish (recruitment). These SMURFs are set out in the three different reef densities of: bare, loose and dense, and collected with a mesh enclosure. We found that the young fish have an opposite pattern to the adult fish observed in Catheline’s study. Far more juvenile fish arrive at these SMURFs in the bare areas.

25th Anniversary Celebration!

Sixty “STAR” Quality Redfish Are Out There Swimming!

ATTENTION ANGLERS! If you haven’t renewed your fishing insurance yet, don’t delay! The 25th Anniversary CCA Texas State of Texas Anglers’ Rodeo (STAR) is underway! Sixty specially tagged redfish, ranging from 20 ½ to 25 ½ inches in length, were released throughout Texas coastal waters, where people fish, from Sabine Lake to South Padre Island just days before the May 24th kick-off! These “STAR” quality redfish are out there swimming around! This could be your year to shine!

SIGN UP TODAY!

Anglers from all across the great Lone Star State can enter all summer-long to vie for over $1,000,000 in prizes in the 25th Anniversary CCA Texas STAR Tournament! Trophy-sized prizes can be claimed by registered STAR anglers who bring in the first 10 tagged redfish. The first five winners will drive home in a 2014 loaded Ford F-150 “Texas Edition” XLT SuperCab, pulling a brand new 23’ Haynie BigFoot boat rigged with a Mercury 150L Pro XS OptiMax motor and Coastline trailer. The next five tagged redfish winners will each claim a 23’ Haynie BigFoot boat with a Mercury Pro XS 150L OptiMax motor and Coastline trailers. You will have to supply your own truck to tow these rigs home. Last year eleven tagged redfish were caught, but only six anglers claimed prizes. The other five, sadly, were not registered for STAR. Don’t let this happen to you!

YOU’VE GOT TO BE IN TO WIN! Are you spooled up? Therapy is too expensive and your entry fee is too cheap, so why take a chance? Now through 5 p.m., Monday, Sept. 1 (Labor Day), anglers will have all summer long to compete for one of the many prize packages in the 2014 CCA Texas STAR Tournament, including truck/boat packages, boat packages, UV packages and scholarships. A friendly reminder to all anglers who plan to fish the Texas Gulf Coast during this time… in order to win one of a $1,000,000 in prizes being offered in Texas’ largest, richest, summer-long saltwater fishing event, an angler must be a CURRENT member of CCA, plus registered as a 2014 Texas STAR entrant. The STAR tournament entry fee is still an awesome bargain at only $20 for ages 18 and up! Membership fee is $25 annually, plus $20 STAR Tournament for a total of $45. In order to win at STAR, an angler must be registered and be a current member of CCA. You know you’ll go so might as well do it now! TROUT DIVISION - With winners in the upper, middle and lower coast regions, each winning angler will take home the Shoalwater 22 Legend with a Mercury 150 L Pro XS motor and McClain trailer. SPECIAL NOTE: If you’re unsure a trout is large enough to qualify, consider this “easy rule-of-thumb” - if length is less than 27 inches, chances are it won’t meet the eight pound minimum weight requirement for the Trout Division. Unless you intend to mount your fish as a personal best, why not think about releasing anything that might not make the cut so she can re-seed the bays.

OFFSHORE DIVISION - Blue water anglers who land the heaviest kingfish, dorado and ling (cobia) will each win an awesome Polaris Ranger® Crew 570 EPS UVs in Polaris Pursuit Camo each with a Big Tex 35sa Trailer! See page 6 for a photo of the Polaris Ranger.

Texas BBQ Shrimp
COURTESY OF GOODE COMPANY BBQ

Yield: 1 serving

Ingredients
- 2 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- 2 tablespoons fresh minced garlic
- ½ tablespoon fresh ground black pepper / ½ tablespoon sweet paprika
- 6 fresh wild-caught Texas Gulf shrimp, head/shell on, U-12 size / Pinch fine sea salt
- ½ tablespoon fresh rosemary, chopped
- 4 dashes Lea & Perrins Worcestershire Sauce (don’t substitute another brand)
- 8 dashes Cholula Hot Sauce / 1 lemon, juiced (about 2 tablespoons) / Splash of light beer of your choice (or whatever is on hand)
- 2 tablespoons unsalted butter
- French bread

Directions

Heat a 10-12 inch skillet over medium heat. Add the olive oil, garlic, pepper and paprika. Cook for about 1 minute.

Add the shrimp, sea salt and rosemary. Cook for approximately 30 seconds on each side.

Add the Worcestershire sauce, hot sauce, lemon juice and beer. Bring to a simmer and reduce slightly. Swirl in the butter and lower heat to allow the shrimp to absorb the flavors. Serve in shallow dishes with plenty of crusty French bread to sop up the juices.

Note: Seek out fresh-caught local shrimp. Bait shops are an overlooked source of seafood. Nothing beats live shrimp, regardless of whether you buy them or catch them in a cast net. Head-on shrimp break down very quickly and must be kept on ice and cooked as soon as possible. For those who prefer peeled and deveined shrimp, give this dish a try and you’ll discover the richer shrimp flavor from the shells and the heads...just like crawfish.

Cedar Bayou now underway!

Steady work has finally seemed to take hold and the dredge is working in the northern end of the bayou. Excavators and bulldozers are working as well up on the beach at Vinson’s Slough.

The path of both Cedar Bayou and Vinson’s Slough has been cleared and are currently “roads” for the workers.

This past oyster season was particularly challenging for Game Wardens in my Victoria District. Most of our oyster fishermen are very hard-working and follow the rules to make an honest living delivering quality product to the consumer.

However, this past season, the industry had a big shortage of live oysters which drove the market to record high prices, and local reefs were depleted early. Many oyster boats from the upper coast have been coming to our local bays since Hurricane Ike covered many of the oyster reefs in Trinity and Galveston Bays with silt. Undoubtedly, the drought has finally taken its toll on our local reefs, as fresh water is needed to grow oysters.

Our biggest challenge in past oyster seasons has been fishermen harvesting and returning to dock with undersize cargo. An oyster must be 3 inches to be legal and boats are allowed up to 15 percent of undersize oysters between ¾ and 3 inches. Wardens use a gauge with measurements of 2 7/8 plus and 1 inch, to give the fisherman the benefit of the doubt.

Checking oyster boats for undersize cargo is one of the dirtiest and most labor intensive jobs for a Game Warden. Wardens are required to cull, measure, and count 5 percent of the cargo to make a determination for undersized. Culling, measuring, and counting as many as 1000 oysters on a boat takes some time even for the most experienced Wardens. If a vessel’s oyster cargo exceeds a certain percentage of undersize oysters, the captain is written a citation to contact the local Justice of the Peace and make a plea to the charge of “Undersize Cargo.” The captain and crew are also required to return all the oysters on board the vessel back to the reef.

This past season, some of our restricted areas in the bay were holding good numbers of legal size oysters. Wardens started working at night to make sure that fishermen were not taking oysters from restricted areas. Violations in restricted areas is of particular concern to wardens since it involves the public’s health.

Wardens working oyster boats during the day are tired. But a Game Warden may go home after a long day, of culling, counting and measuring, only to be called out to patrol the bay looking for boats oystering illegally.

On the night of November 19, 2013, Calhoun County Game Wardens Robert Dominguez and Ben Bailey patrolled through the night near a restricted area at the head of San Antonio Bay. Approximately 5 am (with the use of night vision donated by CCA) wardens located and watched an oyster boat dredging in the restricted area. The night vision gives wardens the advantage in the cover of darkness, unless fog rolls in. After wardens made more observations to ensure oysters were being harvested, they contacted and notified the individual that they were under arrest for “Dredging At Night” and “Oystering In Restricted Area.”

Wardens use GPS units (donated by CCA) to mark coordinates of the arrested vessel oystering for court purposes. The wardens escorted the captain and crew of the vessel to the Seadrift City Harbor where their oyster vessel was secured. Subjects were transported to the Calhoun County Jail for processing. Subjects have pled guilty to the court and sentenced. —Rex Mayes, Captain Game Warden

There will be wind

Next up, from Sabine Lake all the way to San Antonio Bay, two of the finest fish-catch months of the year. As a bonus for CCA members, I’ll include most of August.

There will be wind, deep into June. For the Sabine-Galveston complex, on those southern-breeze days, I’ll fish the protected shorelines of East Galveston Bay. For Sabine Lake windy days, go to the Louisiana shorelines. But, most of the time in the Upper Coast, you’ll enjoy great weather and good fishing almost anywhere. On Sabine Lake, fish around Johnson Bayou and Willow Bayou. Drift with red Bass Assassins attached to ¼ oz. Bomber Shad jigheads.

Wherever, on clearwater days, I like to wadefish at daybreak with topwaters—Super Spooks and the Badonk-adonks. At full light, go to the soft plastics. My favorites have become the Yum Houdini shads, chartreuse pepper or camo-white.

The Jetties, Galveston or Port O’Connor—believe it or not, I’ll chunk lipless crank baits like the Bomber Super Pogie. Of course, heavy gold and silver spoons will attract strikes until you get cut off by Spanish mackerel. Rig accordingly, or lose all your spoons. Bob Kalmbach uses one of those strange-looking anchors with the flexible prongs to anchor on the rocks, and usually gets the anchor back.

Of course, on those super days with light southeast breezes and high tides, you must go to the surf. Wade out from the beach, but not too close to San Luis Pass or Pass Cavallo, equipped with a flotation vest, common sense, gold spoons, Bass Assassins and wire. Or drift-fish just outside the third bar for big surf run specks.

Wherever, be sure to respect the other fisherfolks and remember that courtesy is catch-get the anchor back.

Emery Sadler 713-501-2778
Our Kid Fish was held May 17. We had another successful year with many new faces joining us at Umphrey Pier for a fun morning of fishing. Thank you to our sponsors for your generous support, you made a great day for the young anglers: Daley’s Hunt & Fish, Classic of Southeast Texas, Beaumont Pepsi, Matt Peavey for donating the Lil Debby’s, Anecelet’s; to the Sabine Neches Board members, Orange County CCA, SALT club and to our chapter members who volunteered their time.

I would like to say Thank You to everyone for all of your support over the years, but this will be my last post as I would like to welcome our new President, David Rocknic. David and his wife Teresa have been board members for the chapter and now will be leading the charge for our upcoming events. We wish you the best David! Until next time, tight lines to all! See you on the water! —Darin M Johnson

Great news from Aransas County! Work on the Cedar Bayou/Winson Slough Restoration Project has begun. As of May 1, the dredge was being readied for operation with related equipment on barges staged in Mesquite Bay ready to move through existing channel for off-loading. Following the whooping crane calendar, the project is scheduled to be completed by the time of their return in the fall.

Babes on the Bay XV, that’s right, the fifteenth Babes, is now history and the Aransas Bay Chapter would like to express our thanks to all of the entrants for their participation. A big thank you goes to all the vendors, volunteer TP&W Game Wardens who conducted the weigh-in and the dedicated chapter volunteers for their support. A special thanks goes to Karol Scardino, tournament director, for her continued dedication and commitment to making Babes on the Bay the world’s best all-woman fishing tournament. A donation of $5000 on behalf of CCA Babes On The Bay, Aransas Bay Chapter, will be made to “Go For Fish, Not Drugs”, a kids fish event sponsored by TP&W Game Wardens. It is hoped that all of you had a great time and that you will join us again next year.

Our 15th Annual Banquet is scheduled for 9 August at the Paws and Taws Convention Center in Fulton, Texas. Come join us for a fun filled evening consisting of a live auction, including trips, sculptures, art, etc.; raffle; door prizes; and silent auction. Tickets will be available at Rockport Tackle Town and Ace Hardware Rockport and include dinner, open bar, and a CCA Membership. For any questions concerning advanced ticket reservations, sponsor opportunities, donations or any other matter contact Michelle Green, Banquet Chairperson, at jeepgirl.green@gmail.com. The 35th Anniversary Austin banquet is in the books and May 8, 2014 will go down in history as another record night for CCA Austin. Some 1750 CCA supporters joined us for a fantastic night of great food and fun. The support of, and enthusiasm for, our banquet is incredible. There’s no other event that compares. And for that we owe sincere thanks to all of our sponsors, donors and members that make our banquet so successful.

A lot of people won a lot of great prizes. George Majewski is the proud owner of a new Shallow Sport via the 2014 Austin boat raffle. Jennifer Goodrum drove off as the winner of the 2014 Custom Surf/Hunting 4WD. William Boaz bought the lucky raffle ticket to take home the John Deere Gator. All told lucky winners walked off with nearly $200,000 in prizes!

Next up on the calendar for Austin is Anglers’ Night Out at Abel’s on the Lake July 16th. Like the banquet, ANO continues to grow and 200 or so gather with us at these for fun, festivities and a free meal compliments of Smokey Denmark’s. We always have a great guest speaker. Remember, admission is free and you don’t have to be a member to come so BRING A FRIEND AND ASK THEM TO JOIN CCA. We have great raffles with all kinds of great prizes and that’s where George bought his winning Shallow Sport ticket. So there’s another great reason to come.

Be sure to “Like” Coastal Conservation Association Austin Chapter on Facebook to keep up with everything our awesome chapter has going on.

We have a lot of fun on the Austin board putting together all the amazing events for you throughout the year. If you would like to jump on board and help, just send me a note and we will welcome you. Now it’s time to go fishing! —Scott Sanderson

This is the greatest time of the year because our banquet is over, STAR is starting, and the Conservation Concert is coming up May 17.
We are making trips to the Rockport area to “practice fish” for the InterChapter Challenge on June 14th. Hope to see all the chapters participate because we always have a good time and tell a lot of fish stories.
We are looking for some new faces to join us on our trips. Our meetings are on the second Tuesday every month and are at the Brazos Valley Pavilion at 6pm. As always, there is food, beverages, and plenty of fish stories. If we have enough people attend we even have a drawing for a rod! Give me a call, text, or email if you need more information. Hope to see you there.

On April 24th, we held our 20th annual banquet. It was the largest and most successful one yet with over 4,000 pounds of crawfish and fixings served. Thanks to all the sponsors, especially Mike Hopkins Distributing, Ammotogo.com, Academy, and Germania Insurance. Also, a big thanks goes out to all the board members for their help in putting on this spectacular event. Greg Schomburg and Rodney Forster admire the golf cart, donated by ammotogo.com, that was raffled off at the event.

The 38th Annual Central Houston Chapter banquet took place on May 1, 2014. Even with high expectations going into the banquet, it was a great success; table sales, raffle ticket sales, and the silent and live auction all increased across the board. I would like to thank all of the Board members that worked hard over the past year to make this a successful event. And an extra special thanks to everyone who purchased a table at this year’s event and to our sponsors: Academy Sports & Outdoors, Silver Eagle Distributing, Goode Co. WOA, WHAT A KEEPER! The Colorado Valley Chapter would like to extend our sincere gratitude to all those who attended our banquet and/or helped out in any way to make it such a huge success. Thank you so much to all our donors, sponsors, cap sponsors, auction item contributors, auction winners, and also the KC bunch for preparing such a terrific steak and shrimp meal. We certainly hope all the people going on their fishing trips and hunts enjoy as well as all the other winners of the raffles. We were very fortunate to have such a great number of new Bull Red tables this year. If you did not get the opportunity to attend this year, please get your requests in early next year as it looks promising to have another wonderful event.
We would like to commend our committee personnel and their spouses for putting out the tremendous effort and commitment it took which made the banquet such a great success. Also, we would like to say a big thanks to Ellen and the CCA staff for their expertise. We also would like to extend another special thanks to Saunders Distributing and Brown Distributing for their continuous support.
Our chapter is discussing having a “Fun Fishing Day” in either Port O’Connor or Seadrift sometime this year. If anyone is interested or has any comments/suggestions, just give us a call. We are also planning another general membership meeting in September so be looking for the notice. Hope all had a great Easter holiday and wishing bent rods and tight lines to all. Hope you volunteered for the Warrior’s Weekend in Port O’Connor on May 17, 2014. Maybe you took a hero fishing! Just a few weeks ago the Dallas Chapter faithful turned out for another great evening. With tasty food from TJ’s, the Frontiers of Flight Museum as the backdrop and an enjoyable funny special guest, Lefty Kreh, whom we honored as Sportsman of the Year, the night was a great time for all.
Julio Morales and I are looking ahead to another great year with local chapter meetings including insightful speakers and topics, assembling a team to compete in the next ICLC tournament, and expanding the banquet to reach our greater audience here in North Texas.
Thanks to Robert and the wonderful team of past presidents of our Dallas Chapter, and for the endless hours of service from all of the volunteers that care about the fish and the habitat. Tight lines, — Hal Thomas / 2015 Dallas Chapter President

We hosted the 18th annual banquet at the usual hotspot, Joe T. Garcia’s in the historic stockyards in Fort Worth. We are proud to announce record attendance as your board worked tirelessly into the night to make the event one for the record books for each of our guests.

Ken Crank was spectacular on the mic throughout the entire night and we thank him for his continued commitment to helping us have a such a successful event. There were numerous new items in the live auction that kept everyone engaged and focused on the fish. Brute Outdoors came through with a couple of coolers to add to our give away and Rough Creek was kind enough to donate an overnight stay and fishing for two at their award winning lodge.

Joe White Tank Company led the charge as our lead sponsor bringing behind them a long list of other sponsors – we thank each and every one of you for your contributions. Without you this event wouldn’t be possible.

Katy
Clint Hilton 713-515-3991

The Katy Chapter has been “chunking and winding”, getting plans laid for our annual banquet! We are hosting our event at Agave Road again, June 19. We are bringing the bayou back! Our meal is gonna have the premium crawfish or catfish, and all the fixins that everyone raved about. We also decided to run the GIANT gun raffle again - 15 winners, $20/tkt or 6/$100. Our banquet has grown every year, and we expect this one to be bigger than last. We started selling tickets and tables a few weeks ago and are on track to surpass last year. We’ve also had some big league sponsors step up: FireDisk Grills (www.firediskgrills.com) is going to provide chef prepared appetizers for the banquet, LED Shop of Texas (www.ledshopoftexas.com) jumped in with some ‘bright’ donations, Red River BBQ is providing koozies again, Wet Sounds (www.wetsounds.com) tuned us up with a great stereo system that Mobile Innovations (www.mobileinnovationstx.com) will install. MacQuarie Energy made a sizable underwriting donation, and the list continues to grow.

As you all know, CCA doesn’t exist without donations, and businesses can’t donate without customers. So you buy quality items, please keep these LOCAL businesses in mind.

In March we hosted Texas State Game Ward- en - Mike Weise. Mike has been a friend of the Katy Chapter as long as I can remember. He always shares news, interpretation of the law, and great stories (it’s amazing how dumb people can be). Among the topics was the new law, setting the trout limit at 5 per day. As you can imagine, there was a lot of conversation about the change.

Our May meeting brought the return of Captain Tom Alexander. Tommy comes to Katy meetings often enough that we need to get him to join our board....Tommy is in full on fishing mode, but made time for us again! If you don’t know Tommy, you need to. He is one of the best guides and fisherman on the coast, and can teach anyone new tricks! Tommy talked about the new limits and the impacts it’ll have on fishing. No doubt the long term will benefit, and hopefully we all start catching bigger fish more often. Tommy also discussed the impact it might have on business. Instead of a box of trout, Tommy is going to be ‘stringing’ into consideration and will work to put his clients on an array of species. He is so dedicated to the new approach he’s even changed styles of boats, buying a new Haynie Cat.

If you are interested in becoming active in the Katy Chapter, we’d like to see ya! We meet the 3rd Wednesday of each month, around 6:45ish, at Red River BBQ. Red River has great food, and offers us dollar drafts on the patio. — Clint Hilton 713-515-3991

As this Currents reads for press, the Midcoast Chapter has completed our Banquet on May 9th. Again, we will have a sold out house, all tables are gone and the donations are doing great. The only problem is that it will be two more months for me to give you some kind of report on the success of our event. I am proud that we have a SCB Stingray that will be given away and want to thank Eric Simmons for putting together such a beautiful boat. Also want to thank Jimmie Burns and the Waterloo Rod Co. USA for providing us with several rods. The Tackle Box here in Victoria did a banner job selling boat tickets this year, almost half of the tickets were sold through their store. Darrell Hester and the Victoria AllSports Store again this year provided several guns. Thank you for your support. I will have a much better report on my next Currents newsletter, and be able to report the boat winner to all who bought tickets. Thanks for supporting CCA and the Midcoast Chapter. —David Jenkins

Our Chapter’s Annual Memorial Appreciation Fish Fry was a great success. Captain Jim Hampton gave an excellent speech and lots of tips for fishing in Galveston Bay. We also raffled off a trip with him for three people.

We held our 2014 Annual Kid Fish at Sylvania Beach Pier in La Porte, Texas. The kids caught a lot of fish and all received trophies and prizes. They were also treated to a free snow cone courtesy of Linda’s Sylvania Beach Bait & Tackle who are also our sponsor for this annual event. We also want to thank Harris County Precinct 2, the City of La Porte for their continued support. I want to thank all of our volunteers who showed up to make this event a great success. I also want to thank all of our board members who donate to our kid fish. Without you we couldnt make this happen.

Our next General Meeting will be on June 3rd, 2014 starting at 7:00 PM in the Stein Room at Houston Distributing, 7100 High Life Dr. off Cutten Rd & Hwy 249. Our guest speaker is Dustin Koreba, a veteran of the Texas Kayak fishing scene and Director of the Texas Kayak tournament series. We will be raffling off a kayak fishing trip for 2 people.

We are always looking for directors so if you are interested in giving us a hand we meet the 1st Tuesday of an ODD month.

Our sincere thanks to both Houston Distributing and Academy. They are active sponsors of our meetings and many events. We are especially fortunate to have such great support. As a reminder, we are using email for meeting announcements.

WHAT A NIGHT on April 3rd! We had our 17th annual banquet at Cat Spring Hall. We had a sell-out event! The meal for the evening was prime rib and shrimp served by Mikeska’s BBQ. The evening started with our cap and card game. If you purchased a ticket you got a cap with a playing card attached. If your card was drawn from a separate deck of cards, you won that gun. We had nine guns that were donated by IOS Store in Bellville, Texas. Thanks to Adam Noviskie, Jason Beaman and Wesley Goebel for selling the tickets for the guns.

We also had a silent auction. Throughout the night the girls were selling five dollar raffle tickets. Thanks to Amy, Erin, Jennifer, Audra, Stacey, Lori, Cassie, and Katy for selling the tickets. Thanks also to Academy and all the sponsors who donated gifts.

The main event for the evening was the live auction with trips, prints, and the mystery cooler. Thanks to Mark Switzer and his spotters for doing and outstanding job! This year we offered something new for the banquet that was called “The Bull Red Table.” The eight people at that table were served their meals and drinks and received special treatment from three girl servers. Thanks to Gerald and Debbie Harwell for purchasing the table. Every year we will be offering this same table at the live auction.

This year on the live auction, Vern Hacker and Betty Herzog of Diamond H Ranch won this year’s Bull Red Table. Also on the live auction, offered was the CCA logo gun that was won by Phillip Fairchild of Mark III.

A big thanks to Wittenburg Printing for donating their service and providing the program. On June 14th CCA will have the InterChapter challenge fishing tournament at Aransas Pass. Prairie Chapter will have a team with James Henderson as our captain. We would like to thank all corporate tablet sponsors, cap sponsors, and donors for making this successful! And thank all the board members for their hard work and to the new members who stepped up to help!

We are in the planning stages for our annual kids fishing tournament that will hopefully be held this summer. Place and date will be announced soon. Thanks and have a great year! See you next year! —Ron Chess, Sr. 979-992-3295

As always, our banquet is a family affair with lots of raffle, silent auction, and live auction items for every taste and gender. Thanks again for our CCA staff, board members and attendees for making this a great event.

Our 35th Annual San Antonio Banquet held May 1 has come and gone and I want to thank our membership for their generous support and contribution to the continued growth and success of our chapter. We had 1800 enthusiastic CCA members in attendance which broke our all-time attendance record, but most important, broke our all-time fundraising record by 10%.

We could not have accomplished any of this without your support, our banquet committee contributions and our generous sponsors. I want to personally thank Dr. Mike Sarosdy and Robert Mendosa, our Banquet Co-Chairs, and the 60 volunteers who worked for months putting this banquet together. A production like our banquet cannot be produced without committed volunteers and generous sponsors. Our volunteers and sponsor group are the best of the best. They have a can-do attitude that is unequalled, from IBC Bank, to Silver Eagle/ Budweiser our boat sponsor, Coors Light for their generous supporter of the Harley, Lone Star Beer for their supporting the Hunting Buggy, XX sponsoring the raffles, the RV donation by Crossroads RV, Rockport Rattler for their endless contributions to CCA from trips to hunting trucks and the list goes on. It is a pleasure to work with such a distinguished group and it is a pleasure to report to you that we had a tremendous banquet.

While the banquet is always our biggest event of the year, I also want to thank our membership and Silver Eagle Distributing Co., your local Anheuser Busch/ Corona distributor for supporting Our First Annual “Hooked on Clays” Sporting Clays Shoot, held on April 4 at the National Shooting Center. The winter of 2014 just didn’t seem to want to let go. Hopefully the summer of 2014 won’t be too brutal here in southeast Texas where the daily bag limit on mosquitos is unlimited. The STAR Tournament has kicked off and there has likely been a couple tagged redfish along with a gorgeous speckled trout, tipping the scales of 9 pounds-plus on the upper coast leaderboard by now. Good luck to all participants and be safe out there on the water.

The first 6 months of 2014 has been an exciting time here in the Trinity Bay Chapter. There have been guests attending our meetings and a new addition to our board. Securing the new site in Baytown, Texas for our August 22, 2014 banquet has generated new ideas for the annual event. Based on early reports, more local sponsors are thrilled the banquet is returning closer to home. In addition to our usual seasoned to perfection boiled shrimp and sides, there will be plenty of cold refreshments to quench your thirst while partaking in raffles, card games and auctions.

If you are interested in participating in any of our chapter functions, please let us know. We have monthly meetings in Baytown, Texas on the first Wednesday of each month. We have a great bunch of individuals that dedicate themselves towards the work of CCA and have a lot of fun doing so.

We just finished up another fun and successful banquet at Midland Country Club with approximately 275 people in attendance. The open bar, crawfish, shrimp, prime rib and cooked-in-the-ground whole hog had everyone primed and ready to bid on some really cool trips.

I’d like to thank our 10 Bull Red and 30 Speckled Trout table sponsors, because without y’all it wouldn’t be possible.

Additional thanks to Phoenix Lease Services, Reece “Boudin”

Boudreaux and Tyler Smith for all the work they put in buying, boiling and serving crawfish, shrimp and all the fixin’s to a large and hungry crowd. Getting good crawfish in West Texas is no easy task, but they get-it-done every year.

Thanks go to LPC Crude Oil, Inc., Tim Kohn, Daniel Carter, Steve Mills, Rusty Smith and Robert Curry for the long hours required to cook prime rib and whole hogs. They both turned out cooked to perfection.

Also, a huge thanks to the John and Maurine Cox Foundation for helping to underwrite our banquet expenses and ensuring us a successful banquet. Thank you from the “500 Miles From Brine” chapter, Anheuser-Busch is proud to be a sponsor of CCA Texas again for 2014. We appreciate all the great work that CCA Texas does to help our coastal fisheries as well as their fight for freshwater inflows. Fresh water reaching our bays is an essential part of keeping them healthy.

Water is also a key ingredient in beer and vital to life on the planet which is why Anheuser-Busch is committed to conserving and protecting this natural resource.

In its U.S. breweries, Anheuser-Busch has reduced its water use by 32 percent over the last five years and 45 percent over the last ten years. Since 1992, Anheuser-Busch and its wholesalers have invested $80 million to promote environmental stewardship and sustainability. The brewer and its employees have also committed countless hours volunteering at projects to protect and preserve watersheds in communities across the country.
We want you to fish for us!

CCA Texas and the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department (TPWD) are looking for volunteers to help with fishing surveys for the East Galveston Bay Reef Restoration project. It’s critical to have data before and after. You can be that important Fishing Scientist.

The $3.7 million project will restore approximately 140 acres of oyster reef in the East Galveston Bay system. Areas targeted for restoration include one location on Hannah’s Reef, two locations on Pepper Grove and two locations on Middle Reef.

This effort is an important part of the project. As a Fishing Scientist, your efforts will be critical in understanding the benefits of oyster reef restoration all along the Texas coast.

The fishing periods will be seasonal times during the months of June to August, then September to November, December to February and March to May.

Pre-construction efforts through the end of 2013, and post-construction efforts will take place beginning June 2014 through 2015.
